

Don't Be Fooled...

MORE INFO ON THE OTHER SIDE!

— Did you order a court reporter thinking you were getting a qualified stenographer and someone else showed up?

TO ENSURE YOU HAVE A QUALIFIED STENOGRAPHER AT EVERY ONE OF YOUR PROCEEDINGS:

- Make sure you specify you want a “Stenographic Reporter” on all of your notices and verbal requests.
- Include your court reporting firm or stenographer in scheduling available dates for your proceedings.
- Schedule as early as possible.
- A deposition shall be conducted under the supervision of an officer who is authorized to administer an oath. Ask for the “court reporter’s” credentials upon arrival.
